

<https://www.renzoautomotive.com/job/vehicle-technician/>

Vehicle Technician

Description

Our client is part of a large network group that offers fantastic career progression and tailored training programs to each individual depending on skill set and experience. Working in a large team with an enthusiastic management team and a great working atmosphere. This client offers market leading training and exceptional staff benefits.

Responsibilities

You will undertake routine service inspections for customer-owned vehicles, used-car stock and retail vehicles, repairing and replacing worn or malfunctioning parts. Inspections are a systematic process which requires a process driven approach.

Role responsibilities

Diagnose, repair and maintain vehicles in accordance with company standards, promoting and attaining superior workmanship at all times

Meet individual and departmental activity targets

Advise Line Manager on additional repairs identified in order to obtain permission from customer before proceeding

Keep updated on technical information through factory bulletins and online training

Operate competently and efficiently within agreed timescales communicating with Service and Parts departments to obtain required parts without delay

Qualifications

IMI Level 3 Qualified or equivalent

3 Years of automotive experience minimum ideally dealership but independent garages experience considered.

Hiring organization

Renzo Automotive

Job Location

Croydon

Base Salary

£ 24,000 - £ 28,000 (OTE
£30-£35K)

Date posted

23rd March 2021

Valid through

06.05.2021